Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that a juvenile court shall recommend the suspension of a child's driving privileges if the child is found to have committed an act that would be the crime of reckless driving, obstruction of traffic, vehicular criminal mischief, vehicular involuntary manslaughter, or vehicular reckless homicide if committed by an adult. It requires the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) to comply with a court's suspension recommendation.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The BMV will suspend the driving privileges of the juveniles in the same manner as they currently suspend licenses. On average, the BMV suspends approximately 125,000 licenses per year. The provisions of this proposal will not result in any increased expenditures for the BMV. The fund affected is the Motor Vehicle Highway Account which supports the BMV.
